MEDICAL SOCIETY.

Opposing the National Surgical Institute. The Medical Society of this city held a meeting last Saturday night at Gonzaga hall; Dr. N. S. last Saturday night at Gonzaga hall; Dr. N. S. Lincoln, president, in the chair. They were called together for the purpose of taking action against the proposed incorporation of the national surgical institute, for which object a bill is now pending before the Committees on the District of Columbia of both Houses of Congress. Drs. Lincoln, president of the society; Garnett, Busey, Reyburn and Ford Thompson were appointed a committee to prepare a protest, to be presented to the House Committee on the District, which will take the subject up next Tuesday. They regard the mes having the movement in charge as a set of ampiries, and the proposed institute as extra professional and against the interests of the public.

SUDDEN DEATH. Michael C. Fitzgerald Drops Dead in the Street.

The sudden and unexpected death of Michael C. Fitzgerald, a well-known contractor, yesterday aftercoon, has not only enshrouded his family and friends in mourning, but caused them to halt and order on the uncertainty of life and with what apidity mortals can pass to immortality. It also ought to many the thought and note of warning to stand prepared, for none could tell when they might be summoned to answer that call which comes sooner or later to all mankind.

The taking off of Mr. Fitzgerald was sad indeed, and the circumstances surrounding the tew hours previous to his death show that he little anticipated the dissolution. In company with his wife they proceeded, in a buggy, to the Church of the Immaculate Conception, corner of Eighth and N streets northwest, between 2 and 3 o'clock, to attend the funeral services of a deceased friend. While there a carriage came in collision with the lighter vehicle in line for the procession, and injured it to such an extent as to prevent Mr. Fitzgerald and his lady from attending the body to the cemetery.

Thinking the buggy not strong enough to bear them both the husband concluded to put his wife in it, and, walking, lead the horse to their home. They proceeded down Eighth street to H, and then turned to Seventh. On reaching the intersection of these two streets Mr. Fitzgerald made a hair, and was about to examine his buggy, when he staggered and fell to the sidewalk. Officer Simpson and others happening near witnessed the man fall, and hastened to his assistance. Only a ng to stand prepared, for none could tell when he staggered and fell to the sidewalk. Officer Simpson and others happening hear witnesset the man fall, and hastened to his assistance. Only a few seconds elapsed before they reached his side, but short as the time was, when they got there he was found senseless and life almost extinct. He was immediately taken to a house on K, between Sixth and Seventh streets, and medical attendance summoned, but breath had departed ere a physician arrived. A conveyance was procured from Messrs, Huguely & Bowen, and Officers Quinlan, Huest, and Byram took the remains to the late residence of the deceased, No. 169 H street northesist.

Mrs. Fitzgerald, almost dumb with astonishment at the suddenness of her misfortune, for a few moments scarce realized the sad visitation upon her. But when she came to understand that her husband was dead to her and the world that her huseand was dead to her and the world her grief was terrible and the scene heartrending. #### CHARITY.

The Aged Women's Home of Georgetown. The members of the Ladies' Benevolent Society of Georgetown have built a monument for their haritableness and goodness of heart in establishing the Aged Women's Home of that city, and in after years it will testify to their worth and exemplifying to the fullest extent the adage, "By your works shall ye be known." In their perseverance, energy and strong will these ladie have succeeded in raising up an institution where the aged and feeble can find rest, and now that heir days of labor are spent, a quiet, peaceful home is provided, where they will find food, shel-ter and protection. At the present time there are thirteen sged inmates of the Home, each of these enjoys private apartments to themselves, and are as isolated as if thirteen families were living in same tenement and desired seclusion for the same tenement and desired sectusion for the rest.

In order that assistance may be procured in providing for the necessities of the old and infirm of the Home the indies entrusted with its management will give a May festival at Forrest hall, beginning with this evening and closing with Thursday night. On Wednesday evening a concert will be given, in which some of the finest vocal talent of the two cities is expected to participate, and other inducements will be held out to make the entertainments attractive.

The Home requires considerable repairing and renovating, and to do this funds are wanting. It is hoped that extensive patronage will be extended to the festival that the beneficient ladies having it in charge can perform the charitable having it in charge can perform the charitable decis which are so urgent in their demands, and so deserving in the expenditure of money.

The gentlemen whose name heads this article fied at his residence in this city, No. 924 Scott Square, on Saturday, at 9:30 p. m. He was born in Mason county, Ky., on the 19th of April, 1812. He peccived an academic education, and in early life settled in the State of Mississippi, where he edited and published a newspaper. While residing there he read law under Hon. William L. Sharkey, one of the most eminent jurists of that State. He shortly after removed to Terre Haute Ind., and for a short time practiced his profession here. But finding the theatre too limited for his mbition he removed to Cincinnati, then growing to commercial and manufacturing importance, into commercial and manufacturing importance. Here he soon took rank among the ablest and most successful lawyers of that city, a position he maintained for nearly thirty years.

One of his earliest law partners was Hon. Calch R. Smith, Secretary of the Interior under Lincoln, and his latest, except his son, was Governor Hayer, of Ohio.

Hayes, of Ohio.

Though an ardent and carnest Republican from conviction and principle, he sought no office, and declined many. Me was a member of the Chicago Republican of the District, to be held on the 8th of May, 1876, has been issued by the following gentlemen: convention of 1860, and was one of the four delegates from his State who voted for Lincoln. Mr. Lincoln tendered him the office of district judge, which he declined. Afterwards, for a short period, he accepted that of district attorney for the Southern district of Ohio, and filled it with unusual fidelity and ability.

About five years ago he removed to this city. Here, before the Supreme Court of the United States, the Court of Claims, the Supreme Court of the District and the various commissions, his practice was a very extensive one. And in the of the District and the various commissions, his practice was a very extensive one. And in the very highest walks of the profession he was always found equal to every emergency. His genial, social disposition, and his warm and generous friendship attracted to him earnest and admiring friends wherever he was known. His views of life and man were broad and liberal, and found their expression in act of generous shared. views of life and man were broad and liberal, and found their expression in acts of generous beneficence and charity. To round off and fill up such a life required only that he should die as he did, in the feith and hope of a sincere Christian.

South Washington Sunday School Union. The monthly session of the Union took place resterday afternoon at Ryland chapel. At 3:30 o'clock the church was crowded to its utmost ca-pacity, many being unable to obtain seats. Mr. C. B. Pearson presided, and announced the hymn, "Jesus, lover of my soul," which was sung, after which the Rev. Mr. Hammond, paster of the Ninth-street Methodist Protestant church, led in prayer. After the reading of the minutes by the secretary, Mr. Samuel Yeatman, the Westminster Presbyterian school (Rev. Mr. Bittinger, super-intendent.) sang a sweet hymn. The president then announced the Rev. Dr. Wills, of the Western Presbyterian church, who delivered a most interesting address. The Ryland chapel school then sang a quartette and chorus, entitled "Trust in Geod," Miss Rebecca Bird, George G. Garrett, Frank Z. Maguire and Emory Yount singing the quartette. The Rev. Dr. Sunderland was then introduced and made some remarks, well-timed and practical. The Fifth Baptist school sang a beautiful Selection with great taste and effect. The Rev. Mr. Hammond then made some closing remarks on the laith of childhood, very interesting and telling in their character, and the Union closed with the Doxology and benediction by the Rev, Mr. Mendor. Church of the Epiphany. Rev. S. G. Lines, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Binghampton, N. Y., preached in the Church of the Epiphany, this city, yester lay afternoon. The text was St. Luke, xxiv:13-16 and the subject of the sermon was the manife tion of the risen Saviour to the two disciples on their way to Euwans. The same Jesus meets and walks with men now, but they must pray has the two disciples did, "Abide with us," or he will pass on. Golden opportunities are planed within our reach, placed in our very path, but to make them our own requires some exertion on our part. Christis present whe ever there is an opportunity of caying a kind word, of doing a loving deed, of lending a helping hand to some struggling brether. He reveals himself in his word, in the daily cares and trains of life, when his followers have the time and inclination to think and speak of him as the two disciples were doing when he drew near and went with them; but the highest manifestation of this presence and love is through the services and sacraments of his Church, and he is still known of his followers "in breaking of bread." tion of the risen Saviour to the two disciples on Spring Meeting of the Washington Driving Park. With to-morrow will be inaugurated the spring meeting of the Washington Driving Park, at the course near Benning's station, and continue for four days. Mr. Hill, the proprietor, has expended considerable money this past winter and during the present spring to make the park acceptable in every respect as a first-class place of its kind, and deserving the patronage of turfmen and the public generally. The track has been placed in an excellent condition, and the few faults complained of previously have been eradicated so that now it stands unexcelled as a tretting ground. The stables, numbering fifty-seven, are large and The stables, numbering fifty-seven, are large and wide, and furnised with an eye to the accommodation of the animal and his groom. A large hotel is in the course of crection near the grand stand, and will be finished at an early day, which will add another attractive feature to the grounds and increase their value. A representative of the NATIONAL REPUBLICAN visited the park yesterday, and found many gentlemen present viewing NATIONAL HEFURLICAN visited the park yesterday, and found many gentlemen present viewing the trainers as they exercised the fivers in their regular morning work and preparation for their week's contest. Most all of the horse entered for the meeting have arrived, and are being put in condition to participate in the trials of speed for which they have been entered.

The string of trotters is long, and judging from the record of those at the track, the sport ought to be exciting and the races well contested throughout. Among the fast ones seen were Annie Collins, John H—, Adelaide, Barney Kelly, Effic Pean, Mattie Lyle, Huntress, Bateman, Joe Brown, Nettie, Lady Maud, White Cloud, General McArthur, General Howard, George, Kitty Fiske, Osear, Clifton Boy and others, whose names were not obtained.

Col. James A. Pierce, proprietor of the Impectors.

Oscar, Cliffon Boy and others, whose names were not obtained.

Col. James A. Pierce, proprietor of the Imperial hotel, will supply the refreshments, so no fears need be entertained that there will not be an abundance both of liquors and substantials on the ground for the inner man. The programme for the first day is as follows:

Special trains will be run by the Baltimore and Potomae railroad, taking passengers within close proximity of the grounds, and in ample time to witness the contests. As there is considerable sneak-thieving and fraud among some horse-men, and as it is unfair that the honest should suffer for the dishonest, the following, from the Easton (Pa.) Express, is published for the benefit of all parties having any interest in either horses trotting in the race or the contests.

interest in either horses trotting in the race or the contests:

"We noticed published among the entries for the trotting meeting at Hill's Washington Driving Park, District of Columbia, which opens May 2, the following: Eessons Slight, Phillipsburg, N. J., w. g. 'Harry:' Phillip Weiler, Phillipsburg, N. J., b. g. 'George,' and these are named to trot on the 2d, 3d and 4th days of the meeting. Now, there are no such persons living in Phillipsburg, and no such horses owned there, and, of course, the announcement is a fraud. In this region we know of no such owners or trotters. and, of course, the announcement is a fraud. In this region we know of no such owners or trotters, and the natural inference is that horses of faster time are thus smuggled in to compete with and defeat those bonestly entered. The classes in which they are announced to trot are: 3:00 class, or $1,000; 2:29 class, $1,000, and 2:37 class, $1,000. The proprietor of the Washington Driving Park should keep a sharp lookout for them, and see that they are not admitted unless they can prove an honest and clear record."

The Washington Driving Association open the spring meeting, which lasts four days, May 9.

The inaugural running meeting of the National Jockey Club will begin May 15 at the Washington Park course at Benning's, and last three days.

The Ascension Church Festival.

The greatest credit is due the ladies of the Church of the Ascension for their indefatigable efforts to raise funds sufficient to liquidate the debt upon their new and beautiful edifice, corner of Twelfth street and Massachusetts avenue. In addition to what they have already done, they purpose giving a festival at Masonic Temple, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, admission free, at which a lunch will be served daily. A large assortment of articles—useful, beautiful and ornamental-will be offered for sale, while at and ornamental—will be offered for sale, while at the "Centennial" table many antiquated articles will be exhibited, and tea will be served by the ladies wearing the costumes of the Revolutionary days. The marine band is to furnish the music, and all undoubtedly have an enjoyable time. Among the ladies who will contribute to the suc-cess of the fostival are Mrs. and Miss Waite, Mrs. Ward Hunt, Mrs. Sceretary Fish, Mrs. Kerr, Mrs. Bayard, Mrs. and Miss Duell, Mrs. Ferris, Mrs. Rickets, Mrs. J. Deafness and Affection of the Lungs Cured. [Certificate from Mr. J. Henry Carroll.] WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 25, 1876. My attention having been attracted to a test monial from Rev. Mr. Domer, the distinguished pastor of the English Lutheran church, Eleventh and H streets, this city, certifying to the remarkand H streets, this city, certifying to the remarkable cure of an affection of the ear by Dr. Hartley, I concluded to try [the doctor's skill in a case of catarrh of very aggravated form, from which I had suffered for many years past, which had seriously impaired my hearing and developed every symptom i of consumption. I am happy to state that Dr. Hartley has effected a complete and radical cure, removing every vestige of catarrh, deafness and affection of the lungs, and I am now as healthy and can hear as perfectly as at any former period of my life. Dr. Hartley's remarkable success in my case justifies this testimonial, and he has my best thanks, with a more substantial evidence of my appreciation.

J. HENNY CARROLL,

J. HENRY CARROLL, 813 I street northwest. [From the Rev. Cyrus H. Fay, 1018 Eighth street northwest, Washington, D. C.]

I have pleasure in adding another testimonial to the many already given to the skill of Dr. Hartley in the treatment of deafness. Benefits received in the line of his profession by myself and members of my family prompt me to make this unsolicited acknowledgment.

Benson's Capcine Porous Plasters Relieve you instantly, and cure quicker than any known plaster, limment or compound. They are a genuine pharmaccutical preparation, and in no sense a patent medicine Capcine is a recently-developed powerful vege table principle. Capcine is superior to electricity.

It is the most powerful medicine yet discovered.

BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTERS Will cure your ailments in a few hours. They are a great improvement on other perous plasters.
They will positively cure Rheumatism, Neural-gia and Ridney Affections.
They cure where other plasters simply relieve. BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTERS Are purely vegetable. They do not blister.

BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTERS POSSESS THE MEDICINE POROUS FLASTERS

Possess true medicinal merit; their use insure instant relief and certain cure; their unquestionable superiority over all other porous plasters is indersed by ever two thousand physicians and druggists, whose names alone are a sufficient guarantee of their merits. Try them. Price, 25 cents.

Use Thurston's Ivory Pearl Tooth Pow-Der. A perfect dentifrice. Its action on the teeth is specific, removes tartar and discoloration, arrests decay, and keeps them sound, clean and white. It hardens the gums, eweetens the breath, and, containing no acid, canoot injure the enamel. Its constant use is recommended to all, but spe-cially to those who, having good teeth, wish to preserve them. Twenty-five and fifty cents per bottle.

THOMPSON'S POMADE OFFINE, for dressing the hair. This fine pomade merits special mention. Purely vegetable, its effect is to soften and refine coarse dry hair, insparting to it gloss and beauty. Unlike many preparations for the hair, it cannot injure, but is highly beneficial, equally so to the rich, golden-hued tresses of youth, the darker shades of middle life, or the silver-streaked locks of age. Twenty:five and fifty cents per bottle, PRACTICE ECONOMY. Renovate your solled gloves thoroughly and quickly with Jovens' In-odorous Kid Glove Cleaner. Twenty-five cents
